

Wheat Prices Hit New Level At Winnipeg

Unconfirmed reports of frost damage in Manitoba were an official weather forecast predicting frost danger to Manitoba and Saskatchewan within 24 hours, sent prices up at Winnipeg on Monday from 8 to 12 cents. The wheat was at its lowest price for a time, but liberal offerings forced the market back once more. Trading was normal, but the market was closed with gains of 7-14 to 6-8 for the day, October at 161 3-8, and December 147-1/2.

New Regulations For Anglers

The catch limit per day of cut-throat, rainbow, Loch Leven and Dolly Varden trout has been reduced to twenty, according to new regulations for the province of Alberta and Saskatchewan. This limit applies also in the case of grayling and Rock Mountain whitefish, while the limit for other fish is as follows: Lake trout, 10; perch or golden shiner, 25; pike or pickerel, 15; bass, 5; in the case of perch and golden shiner or other species of rock bass than will in the aggregate number more than 25, the same regulation applying to pike and pickerel.

WEDDINGS

VENABLES-BRYAN

Delia United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday last, August 6, when Rev. J. Bryan, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan, of Delia, became the bride of Jack Venable, also of this district and Penitentiary, B. C. The church was prettily decorated and the Rev. J. E. Gieson performed the ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a beautiful high-collared gown of white georgette, and was attended by her sister, Miss Hilda Bryan, who wore a gown of buffed crepe and carried a bouquet of white hydrangeas. The two bridesmaids were Miss Vera Penack in mauve with a bouquet of blue and white flowers, and Miss Phemie Bath in blue with a bouquet of cream and red roses; and little Mabel Bryan, small sister of the bride, made a dainty flower girl.

Mr. Wilfred Venable, of Penitentiary, brother of the groom, was best man, and Olin McKee and Howard Stephenson were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore a beautiful dress of old gold with lace to match. The bride's mother wore a beautiful dress of old gold with lace to match.

The choir sang, "The Voice that breathed our Eden" and during the wedding of the register, it was "Newcombe sang the hymn, "Always."

After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Venable left by auto for Buffalo Lake where the honeymoon is being spent.

On their return they will reside on the groom's farm north of Delia.

DRAKE-HUNTER

A pretty wedding took place here Wednesday at the New Hill United Church, when Alex Florence Hunter, eldest daughter of Mr. James Hunter, and native born Canadian, became the bride of Wray Vernon Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Drake, of Long Beach, Cal. Rev. J. E. Gieson officiated.

The bride was charming in white tulle, wore bouffant style, while her dainty veil was finished with trailing of the bride's hair.

The wedding was attended by two bridesmaids, her sister, Miss Hilda Peterson was "Bridesmaid" during the signing of the register.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. James R. Davidson.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, where a delightful buffet lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Drake left for Canmore, where they will make their home.

Three Seconds Later

Inside the last episode of the anti-atomism campaign, a French aviator, Paul L. A. de la Roche, has been killed. The fact will be a tragedy to the world, and a blow to the cause of peace.

"Three seconds of an error may save a trivial matter, but to modern aviation, it is a matter of great significance."
